Re: United States v. Brian Hernandez, 24-cr-417 (LJL)

Your Honor:

The Court recently scheduled a hearing in this case for next Monday, June 16. However, undersigned counsel, representing co-defendant Brian Hernandez, as well as Raymond Gazer, counsel for co-defendant Ramon Rodriguez, have calendar conflicts stemming from previously scheduled court proceedings that day, including, in attorney Gazer's case, an ongoing trial.

Undersigned counsel spoke to the AUSAs handling this prosecution, and both undersigned counsel and the government are available on June 26. I therefore respectfully request that, if the Court has availability that day, the matter be re-scheduled for June 26.

For the reasons stated above, I respectfully request that the hearing currently scheduled for June 16 be continued until June 26. I also request, on behalf of both defendants, that, if the Court endorses this motion, time be excluded from speedy trial time calculations until June 26 as it is in the best interests of the defendants to afford their attorneys more time to prepare and continue engaging in pre-trial conversations with the AUSAs.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
